Sinya Coffee Tables is a collection of two different coffee tables. One of the tables is made up of three separate tabletops joined together, while the other has two tabletops joined together into one graphically characteristic sculptural object. The three-top table has two of its separate tops carved in different carving patterns, while the third top is contrastingly smooth. Together they create a novel triptych of sorts. The name Sinya comes from Bosnian “Sinija,” which symbolizes old, very low and round dining tables, where families gathered around a meal while sitting on the floor. They form a gathering place for snacks, drinks and small talk. The tables are offered in a choice of oak, walnut, and stained maple finishes.

ENVIRONMENT

Indoor. Outdoor is possible if protected from sunlight and precipitation.

* Product weights are approximate and vary based on wood species. Different wood densities affect overall weight, even within the same species. If only one weight is shown, it represents the average for maple, ash, and walnut—maple and walnut are similar, while ash is 4% heavier. Oak's weight can be estimated by adding 11% to the net weight. These variations may impact handling, transport, and usage.
